

Your Name

City, State Abbreviation Zip Code | (123) 456-7890 | email@example.com | LinkedIn | Portfolio

Profile

- An accomplished senior substitute teacher with a master's degree and a proven record in enhancing student academic outcomes. Create lesson plans tailored to students' knowledge levels, effectively mentoring new substitute educators, and participating in school improvement initiatives. Possess subject knowledge in science, leadership proficiency, and the ability to foster open communication with parents, leading to a robust academic environment.

Education

- Master's Degree in Education | QUEENS COLLEGE, Queens, NY | 2016
- Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) | ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY, Queens, NY | 2014

Certifications

- Substitute Teacher Certification (STC), New York Department of Education, 2015
- Teacher Certification - New York State, New York Department of Education, 2017

Key Skills

- Classroom management skills
- Communicating with parents
- Creating lesson plans
- Instructional skills
- Mentoring and leadership

Professional Experience

SENIOR SCIENCE SUBSTITUTE TEACHER | LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL, NEW YORK, NY | JANUARY 2017 - PRESENT

- Designed lesson plans to cover an advanced placement science class, helping students achieve a 78% pass rate on the exam
- Collaborated with science department staff to meet curriculum standards
- Participated in parent teacher conferences, academic awards programs, and Regents exam grading

SENIOR SUBSTITUTE TEACHER | P.S. 164, BROOKLYN, NY | JUNE 2012 - DECEMBER 2016

- Created and implemented tailored lesson plans across different age groups and subjects, receiving positive feedback on student engagement and learning outcomes
- Mentored new substitute teachers in the district, sharing guidance on curriculum implementation and classroom management techniques
- Regularly communicated with students' parents, sharing updates about their academic progress and addressing concerns, fostering a nurturing school environment