

MICHAEL THOMPSON, DPT, ACCS

A results-driven acute care physical therapist with eight years of experience delivering exceptional patient care in hospital settings. A proven track record of developing individualized rehabilitation programs for patients recovering from surgeries, strokes, and traumatic injuries.

CONTACT

(444) 777-1234

email@example.com

LinkedIn

Pittsburgh, PA 12345

KEY SKILLS

- Acute care physical therapy
- Neurologic rehabilitation
- Post-surgical recovery management
- Patient and family education
- Gait and mobility training
- ICU rehabilitation

EDUCATION

- Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT)
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH,
Pittsburgh, PA | May 2016
- Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Biology
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH,
Pittsburgh, PA | May 2012

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Physical Therapist | University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC),
Pittsburgh, PA
June 2018 – present

- Develop and implement over 500 individualized treatment plans for acute care patients, resulting in a 30% improvement in mobility in over 90% of patients
- Manage a team of physical therapy assistants, provide mentorship, and ensure proper execution of treatment plans
- Led patient and family education sessions on rehabilitation strategies, home exercises, and recovery expectations, contributing to a 28% reduction in readmission rates over one year

Physical Therapist | St. Clair Hospital, Pittsburgh, PA
January 2016 – May 2018

- Conducted comprehensive assessments of patients in the intensive care unit (ICU), developing treatment plans for those with complex neurological and musculoskeletal conditions
- Collaborated with surgeons, nurses, and occupational therapists to deliver integrated rehabilitation plans, resulting in a 20% improvement in recovery times

CERTIFICATIONS

- Acute Care Clinical Specialist (ACCS) | American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties | May 2016
- Certified Lymphedema Therapist (CLT) | Lymphology Association of North America | May 2016