ANDREA CAMPBELL

Certified Information Security Manager with six years of experience delivering innovative security solutions. Cybersecurity analyst who leverages a robust background in national defense and enterprise-level technology to deliver reliable service. Proven ability to communicate complex security needs to other IT professionals and non-technical stakeholders.

Location

City, State Abbreviation Zip Code

Phone

(123) 456-7890

Email

email@example.com

Website

LinkedIn | Portfolio

Key skills

- Attention to detail
- Automation and control testing
- Client relationship management
- Splunk proficiency
- System security planning
- Technical documentation
- Professional Experience

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Computer Science

September 2012 – June 2016

University of Maryland, College Park, MD

Professional Experience

Cybersecurity Analyst, NASA, Greenbelt, MD
May 2020 – present

- Liaise between the information system (IS) security officer and an IT team of 15 specialists to ensure compliance with federal standards
- Developed over 30 system security plans to ensure readiness and response capability
- Document and resolve security incidents and breaches in coordination with network and application professionals

Cybersecurity Analyst, Smart Solutions, Remote
January 2017 – April 2020

- Collaborated with senior analysts to integrate security controls throughout clients' software development lifecycles
- Improved software deployment times by two weeks through the early integration of updated security protocols
- Reduced system vulnerability by 25% with the implementation of Splunk's advanced monitoring tools
- Engaged in security audits to ensure adherence to Department of Defense (DoD) standards

Certifications

- Certified Information Security Manager, Information Systems Audit and Control Association, 2021
- Certified Information Systems Security Professional, International Information System Security Certification Consortium, 2018