

KEY SKILLS

- Aircraft systems monitoring
- Mechanical troubleshooting
- Regulatory compliance
- Workplace safety

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Airframe and Powerplant Certification, Federal Aviation Administration
- Certified Aviation Manager, National Business Aviation Association
- Inspection Authorization Certification, Federal Aviation Administration

RAHEEM RICHARDSON

A highly skilled aircraft maintenance technician with a strong educational background in aviation maintenance and over three years of experience in the aerospace industry. Proven ability to perform routine inspections, troubleshoot complex issues, and ensure compliance with safety regulations, improving aircraft reliability and safety.

PROFFESIONAL EXPERIENCE

SENIOR AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE TECHNICIAN

LOCKHEED MARTIN, FORT WORTH, TEXAS | JANUARY 2019 TO PRESENT

- Conduct routine inspections and maintenance on various aircraft systems, resulting in a 15% decrease in system failures
- Troubleshoot and resolve complex mechanical and electrical issues, improving aircraft reliability by 20%
- Ensure strict compliance with FAA safety regulations and maintain detailed records of all maintenance procedures, contributing to a 100% safety audit pass rate

AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE TECHNICIAN

BOEING, SEATTLE, WASHINGTON | MAY 2018 TO DECEMBER 2018

- Performed regular checks and maintenance on aircraft systems, reducing equipment downtime by 10%
- Diagnosed and fixed mechanical and electrical problems, increasing overall aircraft performance
- Maintained compliance with safety standards and regulations, resulting in zero safety incidents during tenure

EDUCATION

BS in Aviation Maintenance

EMBRY-RIDDLE AERONAUTICAL UNIVERSITY, Daytona Beach, Florida

AAS in Aviation Maintenance Technology PURDUE UNIVERSITY, West Lafayette, Indiana

BS in Aviation Maintenance Management LEWIS UNIVERSITY, Romeoville, Illinois