

EMILY CARTER

A results-driven business management consultant with over eight years of experience helping organizations achieve operational excellence and financial growth. Skilled in business process optimization, market analysis, and strategic planning. Proven success in delivering actionable recommendations that improve efficiency and profitability for Fortune 500 companies and SMEs.

Location

Chicago, IL 60601

Phone

(555) 987-6543

Email

emily.carter@email.com

Key skills

- Business process optimization
- Financial analysis and modeling
- Strategic planning
- Stakeholder engagement
- Competitive market analysis

Education

Master of Business
Administration (MBA) | May
2015

Northwestern University –
Kellogg School of Management,
Evanston, IL

Professional Experience

Business Management Consultant | McKinsey & Company, Chicago, IL
January 2018 – Present

- Led end-to-end business strategy projects for retail and manufacturing clients, achieving an average revenue growth of 15%
- Conducted market and competitive analyses to identify opportunities for expansion and operational improvement
- Designed and implemented cost-reduction strategies that saved clients over $12 million annually

Associate Consultant | Accenture, New York, NY
June 2015 – December 2017

- Analyzed business processes and identified inefficiencies, resulting in a 20% increase in operational efficiency for clients
- Developed and presented detailed reports and recommendations to senior management, influencing key business decisions
- Facilitated cross-functional collaboration to implement technology solutions, improving workflow and productivity

Certifications

- Certified Management Consultant (CMC) | 2017
- Lean Six Sigma Green Belt | 2016