

Linda Walker

Inspiring the next generation of nurses

Nurse educator with 10 years of experience training nursing students and providing continuing education for practicing nurses. Adept at curriculum development, classroom instruction, and clinical supervision.

CONTACT

 (123) 456-7890

 lindawalker@example.com

 LinkedIn

 Austin, TX 78701

KEY SKILLS

- Curriculum development
- Clinical supervision
- Nursing pedagogy
- Student mentoring
- Program evaluation

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

August 2013 - Present

Nurse Educator | University of Texas, Austin | TX

- Develop and deliver nursing curriculum for 100+ students annually, achieving a 90% pass rate on licensing exams
- Supervise clinical rotations, providing hands-on guidance to nursing students
- Implement innovative teaching methods, increasing student engagement by 25%

May 2012 - July 2013

Nursing Instructor Intern | Austin Community College | Austin, TX

- Assisted in curriculum design and evaluation for foundational nursing courses
- Provided one-on-one tutoring for struggling students, improving their academic performance by 15%
- Supported faculty in organizing clinical placements for students

EDUCATION

Master of Science (M.S.) in Nursing Education

University of Texas, Austin, TX | January 2015

CERTIFICATIONS

- Certified Nurse Educator (CNE), National League for Nursing, January 2017
- Registered Nurse (RN), State of Texas, January 2012