

Samuel Bennett

Cultural anthropologist focused on human societies and traditions

Anthropology professor with 12 years of experience in teaching and field research. Skilled in ethnographic methods, cultural analysis, and cross-disciplinary collaboration.

CONTACT

-  (123) 456-7890
-  email@example.com
-  LinkedIn | Portfolio
-  Boulder, CO

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in Anthropology
University of California, Los Angeles, Los Angeles, CA
May 2012

KEY SKILLS

- Ethnographic research
- Fieldwork coordination
- Cross-cultural analysis
- Academic writing
- Public speaking

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Professor of Anthropology | University of Colorado, Boulder, CO
August 2018 – Present

- Conducted field research on indigenous traditions, resulting in three book chapters
- Designed a popular undergraduate course on cultural heritage preservation
- Secured $1 million in research grants for anthropological fieldwork

Assistant Professor of Anthropology | Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO
August 2012 – July 2018

- Taught courses in cultural anthropology and field research methods
- Mentored graduate students conducting international research