

JB

Jessica Barnes

Poison Control ER Nurse

Knowledgeable poison control ER nurse with seven years of experience treating toxic exposures, overdoses, and hazardous material incidents. Skilled in administering antidotes, decontamination procedures, and patient education on poison prevention.

CONTACT

(901) 234-5678

jessicabarnes@example.com

LinkedIn | Profile

Atlanta, GA 30301

KEY SKILLS

- Toxicology and poison treatment
- Hazardous material decontamination
- Emergency overdose interventions
- Antidote administration
- Public health education on poison prevention

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

POISON CONTROL ER NURSE | EMORY UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL, ATLANTA, GA
SEPTEMBER 2020 – PRESENT

- Provide emergency treatment for an average of 20 poison-related cases per shift, including overdoses and toxic ingestions.
- Implemented a rapid decontamination protocol, reducing treatment times by 30% for chemical exposure patients.
- Educate patients and families on poison prevention strategies, decreasing repeat exposure cases by 15%.

ER NURSE | GRADY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL, ATLANTA, GA
JUNE 2016 – AUGUST 2020

- Assisted in administering antidotes and supportive care for toxic exposures, improving patient survival rates.
- Worked closely with the Georgia Poison Control Center to enhance emergency response protocols.
- Trained new ER staff on hazardous material decontamination and toxicology interventions.

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Nursing (MSN)
Emory University, Atlanta, GA | March 2019

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN)
Emory University, Atlanta, GA | March 2016

CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Specialist in Poison Information (CSPI), American Association of Poison Control Centers | , May 2020

Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS), American Heart Association, June 2019

Registered Nurse (RN), Texas , May 2016